QUESTIONS

- How old are you?
 - 40
 - What is your occupation?
 - Data research assistant
 - Do you have a religion?
 - Christian
 - Please describe your financial independence. (Financially independent from parents / how many people you have to support in your family)
 - I have a husband, and I am financially supporting my two children.
1. Do you fund any charity organizations or have funded any charity organizations in the past?
- [Came back to this question toward the end of the interview and replied yes]
 - What did you do to fund the charity organization?
 - for charity, I've had a small amount for the bush fire
 - small toys and goods for hospital.
 - No.
 - Is there anything that pushed you back from funding a charity organization?
 - Nothing came across. But in the past, I had friends who joined the marathon for raising money. Maybe I did a small amount for the sake of my friends.
 - Do you think you might change your mind in the future in funding charity organizations in the future?
 - I don't think so.

- Is there any particular reason why?
 - Not really. I didn't really think about it.
 - I can [find] different ways to support the people in need. Maybe in person.
2. Do you do any volunteer services for charity organizations?
- I don't think so.
 - Is there a reason why you didn't?
 - Nothing came across and no opportunity
3. If you were to fund any of these charities, list the charities in order of most prioritized to least
- humanitarian services 2
 - health and disability services 4
 - children's services 1
 - animals and environment 3
 - Is there a particular reason why you feel like children's services is the most important?
 - Maybe because I have children. And it's good for all the children to have the right to get proper support.
 - If you were to fund a charity organisation, what would you want the charity to do with that funding?
 - Maybe for families who are in need or are in a difficult time so that children can get support through charity with academic needs and physical needs like clothing or food.
 - Why do you think that academic needs and physical needs are the most important things to support?
 - So that they can have a normal life. Children are not strong or big enough to get what they need by themselves.
4. Is there any event in your life that made you be more concerned about children's services.
- No.

5. If you were to fund a charity organization, what would you look into before you fund that charity?
- If the fund really goes to what they mentioned or what I want to give to.
 - Clear source of how they will support or like what they do with the funding.
