QUESTIONS

- How old are you?
 - 36
 - What is your occupation?
 - Charity worker - helping a christian club
 - Do you have a religion?
 - Christian
 - Please describe your financial independence. (Financially independent from parents / how many people you have to support in your family)
 - completely independent
1. Do you fund any charity organizations or have funded any charity organizations in the past?
- Yes. Long time ago, I gave a donation, but as a Christian, we also give a tenth to the Lord.
 - How was your experience? (Did you like it? Would you like to continue supporting them? Why/why not?)
 - Well just... If people need help and if I am capable, I would like to donate something for them. Money or material wise.
 - What do you think influenced you to donate to that charity? ..or the belief to help others?
 - I actually didn't think that much.
 - I just thought that there are people who need it, and if I can do something for them, then I would do it.
 - And would you like to continue supporting them?
 - I am actually not supporting anyone at the moment except giving the tenth that I mentioned. But before, I was supporting a child. It was like helping a child from another country, and you would continue sending money... actually deducting money from your account that kind of thing. But I stopped long time ago.

- What influenced you to stop?
 - I heard that only a small part of the fund go to the children and most of the amount actually belongs to the organisation. So I felt that it was not worth it.
- Were you aware of how they were using the money? The rest of the money that is for the organisation? How they were using it?
 - I actually didn't find it myself. I just heard it from people. Plus, it was like a no-ending spending, so I just stopped. Well, I didn't stop intentionally, but it was just because my credit card expired, and I just didn't follow up, so it automatically stopped. Because they deduct from my card a certain amount, and after that card expired, they could not do anything. They sent me a notification that I need to update my credit card information but I just didn't do it.
- How did you find out about that charity organization?
 - On the street. This was a long time ago. At that time, internet was not that popular. So they had a counter, and people would come and talk to them.
- Oh so somebody actually came up to you?
 - Yeah, yeah. Mmmhmm
- So the person who approached you kind of influenced you to support?
 - Yeah, they had a counter and they had photos of different children to show how cute they are. They said, "you can pick a child that you can support."
- Did you do any research before supporting that organization besides them explaining to you?
 - No. Just at the street. I mean, they were a quite well known organisation at that time, but I'm not sure if they still exist now.
- Do you think you would fund any charity organisations in the future?
 - Well, it's very hard to say because we (her church group) don't really emphasise doing charity things. Unless the Lord gives me some special feeling in my heart, I won't feel too much of the need to do the same thing again.

2. Do you do any volunteer services for charity organizations?

- Yes.
 - Mostly for the church. We have church events and when I was working, I would volunteer for that.
- Yeah, and in this context we are looking more toward charity organisations that work for the welfare of others who are in need...
 - Oh you mean in-person to help that group of people? No.
- Are there any reasons why you didn't volunteer for a charity organization?
 - I think I never had a chance to do it. I think the strong reason is that I don't have time.
- Would you consider volunteering in the future?
 - Yes, I think if I have the opportunity, I will consider.

3. If you were to fund any of these charities, list the charities in order of most prioritized to least

- humanitarian services 2
- health and disability services 4
- children's services 1
 - the first priority is bc the next generation always has brighter future, broader way and adults
 - physical health - food water, and living environment
 - education
- animals and environment 3
- Why did you choose children's services as your top priority?
 - The next generation always has brighter future. And if we can help, their ways can be broader than and the adults.
- If you were to fund for an organisation that supports children, how would you want your funding to be spend? What kind of work?

- I think firstly their physical health. And of course education. Physical health including food, water, and living environment. Other than that, of course education.
 - Why would you say that education is one of the most important...
 - Umm...Hmm... Yeah.. I think children need education. Haha.. (Long pause) Oh... I don't know.
4. Is there any event in your life that made you be more concerned about children than any of the other categories that were listed?
- I have studied children education. Oh, maybe that's why I chose education [for the previous question]. I also always had hope that... umm.. [also] influence from church... that the next generation is important.
5. If you were to fund a charity organization, what would you look into before you fund that charity?
1. They need to be genuine to help the children.
 2. If possible, financially transparent.
 3. They need to give me some report of what they can do or what they did.
